CISC-434: Project 1 Demo & Electronic Submission Guideline
(Fall 2015)

Time: October 22, 2015 (4:00pm - 6:00pm)
Location: Goodwin 521

Demo Guidelines:

This document contains a brief guideline and a tentative order for project 1 demo.

1. Every member of the group should be present for the demo.

2. Maximum time limit for the demo is 12-15 minutes.

3. If you cannot make the starting time for your demo contact the TA at least 24 hours in advance, you will be rescheduled to a more convenient starting time (please look at the following table for tentative schedule, your group number has been emailed to you).

4. The demo will cover the following steps:
   - Each group member explains his own implemented source code in brief.
   - The coordinator (or any member) compiles and runs the applications.
   - Explain the results (e.g., what does the result mean?).
   - I might ask you related questions to understand your work better.

5. Submit a hard copy of your report during the demo.

Warning: Any late submission will be penalized by 2 mark (out of 20 marks) for each day after Thursday.

Submission Guidelines:

Please follow the instructions to submit your project via email.

1. Organize and consolidate all your files and folders into your project-root directory.

2. Compress the project into an archive file. You can use any suitable compression format such as rar, tar, bz, tgz, etc. The archive should be no larger than 20 MB.

3. Email the archive to shahrear.iqbal@gmail.com by 11 PM on Thursday, Oct. 22, 2015. Please put [CISC 434] in the subject.

That’s all.

If you have any difficulty with submission please contact: iqbal@cs.queensu.ca
